She Will Marry Mr. Alfred Wilkinson, a Scioneer of a Pieneer of Abulitionism_A Romantie Courtship-

No Date for the Marriage Set Yet. NEW YORK, April 16 .- A special in to-day's Herold from its Syracuse correspondent says: I verified a report of a very interesting nature which has materialized into a fact of great significance, and cannot fail to attract the widest attention in both Europe and America. In a word, it is the crowning event of the great rebellion. It is nothing more nor less than the announcement made to very intimate friends here of the marriage of Miss Winnie Davis, the eldest daughter of Jefferson Davis, the late President of the Southern Confederacy, to Mr. Alfred Wilkinson of this city, the grandson of Samuel J. May, the great abolitionist lender.

Dame rumor has for a long time past whispered of the possibility of such an event coming to pass, but it was only when Mr. Wilkinson returned from Europe a few weeks ago that the rumor began to assume tangible shape, and it was only within a day or two ago that one of Mr. May's bosom friends was apprised of the engagement.

The event is of more than ordinary significance owing to its bearing on the birth and fall of the rebellion marriage, when accomplished will unite two families who have been heretofere the most implacable political foes, and to whose efforts the flerceness and fervor of the rebellion are largely of John Wilkinson, a very prominent figure in local history, and the grand-son of Rev. Samuel J. May. The name of the Rev. Mr. May is one of the bright gems in the abolition sky, for he was the pioneer, with Garrison, Emer-son, Phillips and Longfellow, in the great work for the abolition of slavery. Not only in the United States, but in Europe also, did he fight for the abolition cause. In Great Britain especially Mr. May lectured upon slavery to large audiencies. After his removal to Syra-cuse Mr. May continued to be very active and prominent in promoting the anti-slavery reform. He soon became known far and wide as a fearless and uncompromising abolitionist. Hundreds of men, women and children, fleeing from bondage and bound for Canada, came to him for protection and help and they never came in vato. He assisted many to escape, among them being the celebrated Jerry Mc-Henry, whose liberation created such a sensation, the anniversary of which was celebrated for several years.

As the meetings of the abolitionists shortly before the declaration of war were violently assailed in Boston and other cities, the Mayor of Syracuse cornestly requested Mr. May to prevent the holding of a meeting here lest it should provoke a riot. Twenty of the most influential gentlemen of Syracuse, nearly half of whom were his parishioners, addressed a letter to Mr. May telling him that they were creditably informed that organized and forcible efforts to prevent the holding of the abolition convention would be made. Probably this was one of the severest tests to which Mr. May's loyalty to his own convictions was ever subjected. Before the hour appointed for the convention, rioters took possession of the hall which Mr. May had hired for the convention, and he was roughly used, the meeting being prevented, and Mr. May was burned in effigy in Hanover such proceedings in the free States. It is this man's grandson who is to wed the "Daughter of the Confederacy."

The story of the courtship is most romantic. Miss Winnie Davis came North some four years ago to visit Dr.
Thomas Emory, of the firm of D. McCarthy & Co. of this city. It was her first visit to this old abolitionist stronghold, and she was consequently quite auxious to meet the society of Syracuse. At one of the receptions given in her honor she was introduced to Mr. Alfred Wilkinson. It will be remembered that Miss Winnfe received a very cool reception in one or two houses here and this treatment of the "Daughter of the Confederacy" is said to have brought her and Mr. Wilkinson in very close relations. He resented the coolness shown her and gallantly championed her cause. The friendship thus engendered between them blossomed into love in due time. Miss Winnie later on went to Europe with a cousin of hers, and is still there.

Mr. Wilkinson some two months ago crossed the ocean to see Mi s Davis and spent several weeks with her sightseeing on the Continent and pressing his suit. When he returned they were be-

Their income is quite fair, but Mr. Wilkinson is not a rich man. It is a love match. young man, however, moves in the very best society here and stands high in the estimation of the community.

The actual time for the wedding has not been set, but it is understood that the date will be in the near future. It is vaguely hinted that there is a no very remote connection between the Euro pean trip and the wedding trousseau. Whether or not Miss Davis' friends have been apprised of the coming wedding is not known, but it is believed that some of them at least are still in olissful ignorance of the affair. Among the few friends of Mr. Wilkinson here who know that the wedding is an assured fact there is the greatest surprise. That the representative children of the North and South should thus come together is to them like the reputed love of God "surpassing all understand-

LOCAL STOCKS.

A Good Market for Washington Securities The Finetuations, There was a fairly good market for local stocks yesterday, Columbia National Bank on a sale of ten shares, at 1824, scored a rise of 4 per share; the highest previous sale was at 182. At the close a few shares were offered at 1823. U. S. Electric stock has shown apparent weakness for several days; two small lots have been put on the market at 114 and ten additional shares are for sale at 114. The opinion prevails that the stock was borrowed and sold with the expectation of forc-ing down the price. If this be true the game is a dangerous one, as on its present dividend of 8 per cent. on the par value of the stock, at 114 the investment will net over 7 per cent., which is about double the yield of many stocks on the list which are much more risky. Besides, an 8 per cent, dividend is but an earn est of what the company is likely to do in the near future. It was whispered at the stockholders' meeting on Monday that the net profits this year will be $75,000 net, over all this year will be $75,000 net, over all expenses, enabling the company to pay several times 8 per cent., if it should be deemed prudent. In addition to the direct profit from dividends, as soon as arrangements shall have been made for erecting a new additional plant, by a vote of the stockholders, new stock to be issued to pay for the same will be alloted to the for the same will be alloted to the stockholders, of record at the time, at par, so that from every three shares now acquired two other shares without premium can be had. There is no probability that any of this stock will find its way into the market, as already the stock is accepted, both here and in Philadelphia, at par for loans at four and five percent, The ordinary stock dealer is much too wise to sell what can thus be used as collateral security, when he can make known to be repeated here, but the story of Mr. Wilkinson's parentage is comparatively unknown. He is a son of John Wilkinson and the story of Mr. Wilkinson's parentage is come from his investment is surely ere of John Wilkinson.

There is some improvement shown in Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone stock. This is altogether natural. There stock. This is altogether natural. There are few companies in the country under better management. The business is having a rapid growth both in this city and in Baltimore. The proposition placed before the Maryland Legislature looking to the arbitrary reduction of telephone charges, which had a depressing influence on the price of the stock for a time, met with the recention it detime, met with the reception it de-served, as it was believed to have been either a blackmailing or stock-jobbing operation, and as soon as rightly understood it was relegated to the tomb of the Capulets. The stock of this company, which has recently sold at 85, was placed yesterday to the extent of 28 shares at 86, closing at 854. with an offering at 86, probably made to attempt to hold the stock at that price with the hope that other lots may be brought out. The offerings of Graphophone stock were meagre and unimportant. Two small lots of ten shares each were taken at 13%, and an offering at 13% of fifty shares, which was quickly accepted, left no stock for sale below 14. Al-though this stock is regarded as in-trinsically worth double what it was a year ago, the instrument having been in the meanwhile so improved that it is daily exciting the wonder and admira tion of all who hear it, yet such has been the persistence of the attacks made upon it that the registered quotations are less than one-half what they were in May last. On the 15th of that month a block of 150 shares was sold at $28. It was without saving was sold at $28. It goes without saying that no one able to buy can afford to neglect the opportunity now presented. In American Security and Trust stock the usual occurrence was wit-nessed of a steady advance in the face of several offerings and the rise main-tained on the closing bid. The details were the following: Twenty shares sold It was not long afterward that the for 404 and twenty-five for 404; twenty firing upon Fort Sumter put an end to more sold at 404 and twenty-five additional at 404. The last offer to sell was

A SUPERB DINNER,

Members of the House River and Harbor Committee Dined, A royal dinner was given by Repre-

The tables were T-shaped and covers were laid for Senator Stockbridge, Representatives Blanchard, Burrows, Chipman, Belknap, Herman, Whiting, Cutcheon, Bowden, Gibson, Clarke, Allen, Grosvenor, Bliss, Townsend, Catchings, Stewart, Clark, Mof-fit, Henderson; Jay A. Hubbell of Michigan, Mr. Dodge of the Milwau-kee Sentinel, Mr. Hosford of the De-troit Free Press, and Mr. Patrick of Marinette Wis.

Marinette, Wis.

The floral decorations were magnificent, and at each plate was placed a miniature sailboat. The menu included planked Potomae shad, yellow-legged player, Jacksnipe on toast and many other delicacies. The speakers of the evening were Messrs. Gibson, Blanch-ard, Burrows, Catchings, Grosvenor, Herman, Clarke of Alabama and "mine hest" Stephenson.

O'SULLIVAN'S SPREE,

He Steals a Watch, Gets Mortally Drunk and is Arrested, A new arrival in Washington, named

Richard Burdorf, reported at the Police Headquarters yesterday afternoon that his gold watch and chain had been stolen at his room, No. 331 C street, near D. He stated that he was placed in a room with another man, and being quite exhausted from traveling, he laid down and took a sound sleep. When he awoke his watch had disappeared. Very soon after the theft was reported Detective carter placed John O'Sullivan under arrest and locked him up in the First Precinct Station. When taken in O'Sullivan was gloriously drunk, and the patrol wagon had to be summoned for him. The watch and chain was found in the pos session of a second-hand dealer and recovered, and the ill-gotten gains that O'Sullivan obtained for it were spent In riotous living.

O'Sullivan was found guilty of grand larceny in the Police Court this morn ing, but sentence has not been im-

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Associated Press it was decided to discontinue the practice of furnishing tabulated scores of ball games to the newspapers. The expense is the main cause of the discontinuance, and the baseball crank this year will have to content himself with the score by innings and a brief summary of the game.

The Columbia Athletic Club ball team will play the Lafayette College team this afternoon at Capitol Park. The Columbias will have out a strong team and an excellent game may be ex-

Boston lost yesterday's game with Clarkson in the points, the Baltimores scoring 12 hits, with a total of 18 bases. The Boston twirler never was much of a cold-weather pitcher.

It is probable that Tony Mullane will over third base for the Cincinnatis in place of Tebeau. Nearly a week has passed since Anson claimed the championship for Chicago. There must be something wrong with the old man.

The results of yesterday's games were as follows: Philadelphia 14, Athletic 1; New York (N. L.) 6, Brooklyn (A. A.) 1; Brooklyn (N. 1.) 8, Hackett-Carhart 3; Brooklyn (P. L.) 21, Kindsley Athletic Club 0.

Jack Hopper, the well-known New York pugilist, is in the city training for his fight with Billy Myers, which comes off in this vicinity within the next ten days. The mill will be a tenround go, with hard gloves, and is bound to be a good one. The talent in this city fancy that Hopper will win, but they seem to forget that Myers has never yet been defeated and is probably the best light-weight in the coun-Auliffe. His managers are too shrewd to allow him to run up against a better man until he has met McAuliffe and settled the question of superiority. Hopper may give Myers enough to do to best him, but that he will do it is a foregone conclusion. The mill, though, will be a good one, and ought to attract a large crowd. The date has been definitely decided upon for the 28th, a week from Monday. The California Athletic Club will offer a $5,000 purse for a fight between Jack McAuliffe and Carney for the light-weight championship of the world. According to the accounts of the Corbett-McCaffrey bout the other night, the Californian had an easy time of it. It will be interesting to have he and Sullivan meet in a finish fight, although there is but little prospect of their doing so for some time. A glove fight for a limited number of rounds may be arranged, however, to take place within a few weeks.

All the arrangements for Billy Mo Millan's big benefit to morrow night have been completed. It will be a rousing good exhibition.

Charles Fitzgerald of St. Louis and Charles Welsh of Buffalo, light-weights, who were matched to fight fifteen rounds, Queensberry rules, for a purse of $500, met at Liederkranz Hall, Louisville, Ky., last night. HOW TO BOW.

A French Authority Tells How to Raise the Hat,

From the London Telegraph On the proper method of performing that salutation known as "raising the hat" there have always prevailed rather conflicting opinions in France, Sometimes Frenchmen lifted their hats in three distinct motions carefully per-formed; at other times they removed them with a sweeping and somewhat rounded gesture. A certain Compte de Larmandie, in his so-called physiolog-ical study of the Faubourg St. Germain for the year 1889, has now laid down rules respecting the coup de chapean which are based on the precedents furnished by the most modern and most fashionable members of the very best ociety in the city.

The man of fashion, according to the Count, must now remove his hat in saluting with a broad, sweeping gesture, which is at the same time elegant and brusque. The hat, having remained well aloft for awhile, must be brought down on the head quickly, like a sword into its scabbard. The persons saluting should preserve an impassive counte-nance as much as possible while going through his elegant evolutions, but the Count does not find fault with a little smile on the features, the said simpering movement being either patronizing familiar, as occasion may require. The noble professor of etiquette dilates eloquently on the tone and tem-per to be adopted by patricians toward vague" people.

THE LIFE IN A GLASS. It Does Not Seem to be Very Much. But it is Often Enough to be the Beginning of Death. Did you ever hold a glass of drinking water up to the light and notice how completely filled it was with little particles of matter? It looked perfectly clear and pure when you poured it out, but yet it was reeking with animal or vegetable matter. Do you imagine it can be healthy? Do you wonder why, in a little while, your mouth tastes bad, your appetite is poor and you feel a general disgust with the world?

But if water is so impure what shall we do? Boll it? No, that may kill the germs, but does not remove them. A far better way is to use pure whiskey with it. The best physicians in America unhesitatingly declare this now, but—and bear this most carefully in mind—it must be pure whiskey, for impure whiskey is worse than impure water.

Dectors, chemists, scientists and pro-Dectors, chemists, scientists and pro-fessors are now fully agreed that no whiskey used in America to-day is so chemically pure or free from fusel oil as Duffy's Pare, Mait. It has successfully withstood the enmity of, all other whiskies, the prejudice of weak minded and the bigotry of narrow-minded people. Why Because it has produced results, restored health, pro-longed life, awakened the lagging faculties and counteracted the evil effects of poison-ous water. Indeed, it is a pure, medicinal whiskey. Do not, however, allow any un-scrupulous dealer to impose upon you by whiskey. Do not, however, and wany un-scrupulous dealer to impose upon you by declaring he has some concoction of his own that is "just as good," or some bottled whiskey that is "much better." It is the very popularity of Duffy's Pure Malt that has caused these unworthy decoctions to come into the market.
